

RCMP Veterans' Association – Vancouver Division Vancouver Maritime Museum Tour Post Cruise June 3rd, 2012 Featuring St. Roch

Vancouver Maritime Museum Tour
Sunday June 3rd, 2012 (Post Cruise)
Pick up location: Vancouver Cruise Terminal (Canada Place)
Time: 10AM – duration approx 1.5 – 2 hours
Cost: $15

The AGM Organizing Committee is proud to feature a talk on the historic St. Roch by RCMP Veteran Staff Sergeant Dan Lemieux during our 7 night cruise to Alaska. To ensure your experience of this amazing story is complete, we are organizing a tour of the St. Roch which is on display at the Vancouver Maritime Museum. This tour will be immediately after disembarkation of the cruise on June 3rd. In order to accommodate transportation, potential of luggage, etc., we ask you pre register as soon as possible including your travel plans so we can arrange and or recommend the best way for you to enjoy this tour.

Highlights of our tour:

St Roch “Arctic Workhorse”: An RCMP Schooner built at Burrard Shipyards at the foot of Lonsdale Ave in North Vancouver in 1928. Guided tour of the St. Roch will be done in small groups of 10 and will take up to 20 - 30 minutes depending on the number of guests registered. There are many other exhibits to see at the museum as well.

Maritime Museum: Every day the Vancouver Maritime Museum charts a different course of adventure for all. Come aboard for fun and knowledge. Discover the rich maritime history and traditions of the Pacific Coast. Step back in time to 1944 on board Canada’s famous RCMP St Roch and explore the many permanent and changing exhibits, Children’s Maritime Discovery Centre, family activities, and the boats in Heritage Harbour. We are seafaring fun at its best!

Visit www.vancouvermaritimemuseum.com for more detailed info on the museum.

Tour includes return transportation from Canada Place and admission to the Museum. Don't miss this unique opportunity. Space is limited. To secure your spot email rcmpvets2012@cruiseshipcenters.com
Payments will be processed approx 30 days prior to departure.